THE ADMIRAL

1950

FOREWORD

Wait A Second:

Are you forgetting something? Before you go on glancing at the pictures and scanning the pages, won't you wait and let us give you a key to it's scheme and purpose?

Remembrance is the objective of our year-book. Through providing a key to things in the past, we hope to build a better tomorrow.

tis on their dust you tred.

JAMES LEWIS WEBB
''Jimmie''
Let ignorance be my choice
since knowledge leads to woe.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

At The Crossroads--
Richard Hovey

You to the left and I to the right,
For the ways of men must sever--
And it well may be for a day and a night,
And it well may be forever.
But whether we meet or whether we part
(For our ways are past our knowing),
A pledge from the heart to its fellow heart
On the ways we all are going!
Here's luck!
For we know not where we are going.

Four years have passed since first the panorama of our high school delighted out wondering eyes. They have been happy years as a whole. They have helped us to understand the finer values of life. They have brought friendships which we will never forget. As we remember the carefree and happy hours we have spent, we almost wish we might relive the years.

Only for the moment though, because we are now eagerly awaiting the new adventures that lie ahead.

In reviewing four years of our high school life, we find that there are many events which will always be remembered. Elections, debates, picnics, and most of all our Junior and Senior plays are indelible in our memory.

Under the leadership and guidance of Andrew Nester, class president, and Miss Maude Boyd, sponsor, the Freshman class of 1946 was organized. During the Sophomore year, Freeda Ratcliff was president and Miss Boyd and Mrs. Miller were advisers. The Junior year had Mrs. Rainey as adviser and Rufus Reed was president. The Senior year had Helen Tolbert as class president, and Mrs. Altizer was sponsor.

When we have graduated, there will be no regrets, for each of us will carry in his heart the spirit of Floyd High on the way we all are going.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class, of Floyd High School, County of Floyd, State of Virginia, being in sound mind and body do hereby bequeath to the underclassmen our most valuable possessions as follows:

To the Juniors - the responsibilities and pleasures that await you as seniors and the ability to stand up for your rights as a class.

To the Sophomores - our mischievousness and business aptitude.

To the Freshmen - our books; study them to fill the gap in your life left by our departure.

To the Eighth Grade - our ability to absorb all studies (in case English, Science and Math are beyond your comprehension.)

To the Faculty - our grateful thoughts, for ''everything,'' and perpetual love.

Be it hereby known that all members of the Senior Class leave the following personal and class belongings to the following individuals:

Margurite Epperly--her ''happy-go-lucky'' disposition to Gertrude Wood.
Sylvia Epperly--her basketball suit ''Old Faithful'' to Christine Sweeney.
Ruth Gallimore--her ability to go places and see things to Jane Slusher.
Norma Graham--her ability to get and to hold a man to Peggy Trail.
Elnora Harman--her fondness for all her classes to Margie Graham.
Callie Howell--her ''too often deserted'' Chemistry book to Norma Boothe.
Mary Alice Hungate--her ability to make the best of everything to Ibra Lee Thomas.
Pauline O'Bryan--her ability to get along with boys to Virginia Houchins.
Margaret Peters--her graceful giggle to Geneva Smith.
Ruth Pauley--her typing ability to Magdalene Martin.
Virginia Phillips--her flirting technique to Peggy Epperly.
Helen Phillips--to Hazel Slusher the ''gobs of chewing gum'' under the desk in room eight.
Freeda Ratcliff--her ''worn-out'' shorthand book to Ethelda Moran.
Morris Phillips--his ability to say what he thinks anywhere, anytime, to Lane Wimmer.
Allen Rakes--his speaking ability to Milton Ogle.
Merrill Reed--his quiet ways to Ralph Graham.
Rufus Reed--his intellectual ability to Ralph Sweeney.
Harry Roberson--his quiet and mannerly ways to George Vaughan.
Bobby Thompson--his fondness for reading library books in class to Ralph Cannaday.
James Webb--his mischievous smile to Gilbert Lester.
Dorothy Akers--her talent in knowing and telling all the ''up-to-date'' jokes to Lindell Gardner.
Frances Akers--to Peggy Keith her unconcerned attitude about her stature.
Marie Barnes--her gracious ways to Nancy Blackwell.
Dorothy Boothe--her red-headed ways to Barbara Duncan.
Ruth Bowman--her ''worn-out'' music book to Lena Pugh.
Rose Ellen Boyd--her tender heart and loving kindness to Helen Dobbins.
Curtis Bower--his thread-bare gym suit to Billy Weddle.
James Bower--his dignity and good disposition to Robert Huff.
David Bowman--his ''little but loud'' technique to Johnny Page.
Wallace Dalton--his ability to lead others without noticable effort to the best all around Junior.
Jabe Hatcher--to Dock Sweeney his ability to speed over the basketball court and the ''know how'' in getting along with his teachers.
Herman DeHart--his ability to stay out of trouble to Cody Hale
Clyde Hylton--his ability to get along with others to Maurice Bower.
Curtis Iddings--his jovial nature but not his ambition to Billy Casteel.
Arnold Kelly--his practical mind to Silas Gardner.
William Earl Mitchell--his never quiet tongue to Ruth Yearout, who can control it.
Andrew Nester--his desire for a sailors life to Dwight Scott.
Etheleene Reed--to Mary Ruth Hungate the habit of getting to class late. (Especially home room.)
Mary Reed--her ability to make the best of any situation to Opalene Harmon.
Mona Slusher--to another poetic girl, Betty Jo Sumner, her writing talent.
Marie Spangler--her ability to studying umpteen hours a day to Elizabeth Markle.
Susie Sweeney--her delightful pastime, talking to the boys, to Zona Lee Sweeney.
Christine Thomas wills her wanting and waiting ability to Janet Clower.
Helen Tolbert--her newly found ability to control her temper to her teammate, Betty Sue Reed.

This will is to be affective at midnight June 2, 1950, providing each one of us has attained a long awaited goal, a diploma certifying each to be a graduate of Floyd High School.

CHICAGO ILLINOIS

June 2, 1965

Dear classmate of 1950,

The Executive Committee of the Alumni Association of Floyd High School has received replies from the 1950 graduates with large contributions from each for the Memorial Fund. It will be interesting to the class to know that they have so many successful classmates. Letters received brought this information:

Ruth Gallimore - a beautician who now has her own exclusive shop, ''The La Vogue Beauty Salon'' in New York city.

Capt. Curtis Bower - of the U. S. Air Force stationed in Pago Pogo, in the Phillipines.

Freeda Ratcliff - personal advisor to the famous Mr. Moneybags in New York city.

Merrill Reed - a leading dairy farmer of Floyd County.

Norma Graham Hatcher and Jabe Hatcher - happily married and living on Honeymoon Lane. Jabe is now owner of the local Mick or Mack Grocery. Norma is kept busy with the twins.

Marie Spangler - world famous chemist known for her discovery of the ''cousin'' to a germ.

James Bower - a manufacturer of atomic powered automobiles.

Helen Tolbert - employed in Halifax, Nova Scotia as publicity agent for the Loose 'Em Co., a reducing pill company.

Bobby Thompson - cartoonist. His comic strip ''Moonshine Hollow'' is eagerly awaited by kids from eight to eighty.

Dorothy Akers - a famous TV star and wife of a wealthy business man.

David Bowman - owner of the largest dude ranch in Texas, ''The Rockin' Saddle.''

Wallace Dalton - just returned from South Africa where he was a missionary and is now touring the country telling of his experiences among the natives.

Elnora Harman - art manager of the Markle Advertising Co. Inc., the largest advertising firm of Floyd.

Frances Akers - now Mrs. Posie Weeks. She sponsors the summer camp for girls at Destiny Bay.

Ruth Bowman - interior decorator in Salt Lake City, Utah. She is now decorating the ''Dreamers Holiday Tavern.''

Andrew Nester - a radio technician for the Navy Air Force stationed in Havana, Cuba.

Rose Ellen Boyd - world traveler has stopped at Hong Kong for a little rest before completing her seventh trip around the world.

Ruth Pauley - after tiring of beauty contest, Ruth has opened her own tourist court at Key West, Florida.

Sylvia Epperly - living a life of luxury on the Isle of Pines in the Caribbean Sea.

William Morris Phillips - a successful lawyer and newly appointed commonwealth's attorney of Virginia for Floyd County.

Margaret Peters - leading poet of the century. She is believed to rank with Shakespeare.

Allen Rakes - wealthy owner of the Norge Automobile Corp, builder of jet cars.

Callie Howell - successful in her own hospital for homeless cats and dogs.

Etheleene Reed - featured singer of the ''Moonlight Serenade'' on station GBD.

Curtis Iddings - married to a French actress, living in a Chateau on the Seine River in Paris, France.

Mary Reed - writer and director of the well loved radio show ''Marriage for Two.''

James Webb - a dentist in Richmond known for his invention of the painless and noiseless drill.

Marie Barnes - stewardess for the ''Fly 'em or Crash 'em'' Air Line Co.

Clyde Hylton - an engineer on the ''Atomic Special'' which runs from Lonesome Valley to Floyd.

Helen Phillips - wife of a very wealthy movie magnate; she graces Hollywood Society and sets the fashion for the movie world.

Virginia Phillips - playing the lead in ''Macbeth'' at the ''Starlight'' theater.

Rufus Reed - criminal lawyer in Chicago. Well-remembered for his work in the case of the murder of Cock Robin.

Margurite Epperly - nurse at the Reck-all Hospital (for the repair of weak minds) at Floyd.

Harry Roberson - owner of the ''Quicksilver Cab Co.'' His motto is ''Hop in, let's go!''

Mona Slusher - personal secretary to Miss Frizzel Buzzard, the first woman president of the U. S.

Herman DeHart - forest ranger at Cobblers State Park, in charge of trips to Cobblers Knob.

Mary Alice Hungate - a famous writer, she has written a book ''Life on Mars''.

Dorothy Boothe - an English teacher at F.H.S. She is teaching Shakespeare's classics to many appreciative students.

Arnold Kelly - a news commentator, one of the best on the Cracker Jack Broadcasting System.

Susie Sweeney - married to a wealthy business man. As she sits and knits she tries to solve the mystery ''If Texas Saw What Arkansas What Did Tennessee?''

Christine Thomas - a famous pianist married to a singer. They both travel with ''The Tagalong Orchestra.''

Wm. Earl Mitchell - runs the ''broken-down merry-go-round,'' for the ''Rag Mop'' Circus and flirts with all the pretty girls.

Pauline O'Bryan - one of the most famous Power's models, featured in the ''Eyecatcher'' magazine this week.

SCHOOL SONG

Let's sing a song to Floyd High
Praise her dear name up to the sky
Grandest of all is the school we love
Here's to old F. H S.
Rah, rah, rah.

Floyd High, how we love to sing thee,
Floyd High, grateful hearts we bring thee
Among purple hills and balmy breeze
Laughing rills and shady trees
Here's to thee, our Alma Mater
Here's to old F. H. S.

Grandest of all, our school days
Dearest of all, our school days
Sweetest of all are our old school chums
Here's to old F. H. S.
Rah, rah, rah.

Floyd High, how we love to sing thee
Floyd High, grateful hearts we bring thee
Among purple hills and balmy breeze
Laughing rills and shady trees
Here's to thee our Alma Mater
Here's to old F. H. S.

Ducks on the Millpond,
Quacks Quack, Quacks
Joyce and Jimmy
in the moonlight,
Smack, smack, smack.
